Disco Details for Thursday the 12th of November.

We are all looking forward to running the Book Fair Disco again this year. The disco will be held outside the library and everyone is invited.

Mr Glen McCoy has agreed to set up his wonderful music again and we thank him for his time and effort.

Children are invited to dress up as their favourite ‘Under the Sea’ character for the disco.

The cost of the disco is $5.00. This will include entry, chips/popcorn, a sausage sandwich, and a drink. Additional sausage sandwiches will be available to be purchased separately.

Please fill in the note below and return it to school to give us an idea of numbers for the sausage sizzle. Please just bring the money on the night to avoid any confusion in the office.

School readiness and younger siblings are more than welcome and encouraged join us for our book fair disco.
